

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, organized under the first Vestry Act of 1701 is the home of an active congregation. The present structure, built 1736-1760, exemplifies the finest in village church design. Buried in the churchyard are colonial governors Charles Eden, Thomas Pollock, and Henderson Walker. NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES.

Edonton, NC

Pub. by Aerial Photography Services Inc. 2300 Dunavant St., Charlotte, N.C. 28203

ADDRESS

